

The airwaves in the U.S. are free for you to use, and you are abusing the privilege by instructing all of your stations to broadcast blatantly partisan material just before the election. This is a good example of a few companies monopolizing the news media in this country, which will eventually compromise our democracy.